

This certificate is proudly awarded to

MedX

In recognition of your valued participation in MedX 2026, a youth healthcare conference held at the University of Toronto Mississauga.

MedX 2026 helps inspire the next generation of healthcare leaders by fostering curiosity, learning, and professional development within the fields of medicine, healthcare, and research. Your engagement in exploring healthcare pathways, building meaningful connections, and contributing to a community dedicated to growth and innovation is sincerely appreciated
